Discussion summary:

As a team, we discussed and created our paper prototypes. The first thing we did was finalize what are the 3 user stories we should prioritize for this DIY application. We also combined user stories that are related. After that, we visualize our ideas about the project through sketching using a whiteboard and colored markers. Then, we created our paper prototypes. After we have completed it, we made sure that it works by testing it out. This helped us reinforce what we know and what we are doing for this project. We also slightly talked about how to resolve conflicts, pull requests, and merge branches on GitHub.

We discussed the Deliverable 1 and its evaluation and when they are due. We made sure that someone was assigned to a section of the requirements document to complete it. After that, we also updated our task matrix.
